Quentin Archer

I was born in the City of London, well within the sound of the bells of St Mary-le-Bow on Cheapside. I have spent almost my entire working life in the City. London is a special place for me, and for many years I have been fascinated by its history and its continual change.

Like many young boys of my generation, I was struck by the announcement in 1966 that the Government had decided to introduce decimal currency. Until then I had a collection of only a few worn bun pennies, but immediately I set about collecting coins from circulation – rather a challenge given my meagre pocket money. My fascination with coinage was clearly enough to compel my mother to take me late that year to the shop of B.A. Seaby in Great Portland Street, where a few shillings purchased an assortment of older British coins and I became a subscriber to the company's Bulletin.

Sadly there was little that I could afford, and my tentative enquiries after cheap Roman coins tended to be met with the news that I had been beaten to them by more energetic collectors. But in 1972, at the age of 16, I successfully bought three London 17th century tokens. It was to be another 30 years before I acquired any more, but in the intervening decades I never forgot them.

A quirk of the school timetable led me to study Russian, which I continued in my first year at Cambridge. I then switched to law and qualified as a solicitor, but my knowledge of Russian came in very handy on a couple of very large disputes for Soviet clients, and I travelled back and forth between London and Moscow on many occasions. In the process I became interested in Russian history and coinage, leading in time to a substantial collection of Russian medieval coins. I chose the medieval period because they presented a much more interesting puzzle than the well-published coins of more modern times. This led in turn to the creation of an equally substantial library of Russian numismatic books. However, increasing affluence in Russia caused the supply of new material to dry up in the West, and so I resolved to sell both collections. The coins were auctioned by Baldwins in London in 2013, and the books by Kolbe and Fanning in New York a few months later. A large proportion of both returned to Russia.

Meanwhile, my interest in the London tokens had resurfaced, aided by the appearance of Dora Harris's fine collection at Dix Noonan Webb in 2002. Somewhat to my surprise I was successful in buying most of the lots on offer. I collected spasmodically over the next few years, but I could not miss the sale of the Norweb collection of City of London tokens in 2008, and from then onwards my fascination with London tokens, history and topography has continued to grow.

The 17th century tokens of London are not only more numerous but also more varied than the issues of other parts of the British Isles. In almost all cases they identify not only the issuer but also the street where the issuer was based, and a great many can be traced back to individuals whose existence is well attested from other contemporary records. Some issuers became wealthy, while others died of the plague, were burnt out in the Great Fire or met other sorry fates. In some cases the tokens are the earliest known evidence for particular streets existing at all, reflecting the rapid and somewhat haphazard development of early modern London.

They were also democratic. There were virtually no companies, so anyone who was not a servant or a holder of public office needed to have a trade, and (unless they dealt only in more expensive items) to have a means of giving small change. As a result, thousands of individuals in London chose to have their own tokens made. They should not be regarded simply as tavern tokens; issuers included tallow chandlers, grocers, meal men, oil men, bakers, sutlers, coffee-house keepers and even goldsmiths.

The tokens are a rich source for academic research. I have published a handful of articles on them and hope to write many more. However, now that the collection has grown almost as large as the Norweb holdings I see no reason to hang onto the physical pieces themselves, and hope that others will appreciate them as much as I have.

The full reading is: mm. 'catherine wheel' both sides, ∴ THOMAS · COULTMAN, floral knot, rev. : IN NOTTINGHAM ∴, lion rampant. There are certain style similarities between this piece (the work of a local artisan and not one of the mainstream manufacturers) and the other cruder issues of Nottingham city (PMP plate 8), although there is no evident match for the letter punches. The form of mint-mark on both sides, resembling a catherine wheel, is unusual and further research would probably uncover other pieces using this device

Edward Arthur Watkin (1921-2014)

Edward Arthur Watkin, usually known as Ted, was born in Stoke-on-Trent on 3 August 1921 into a family who largely worked in pottery manufacturing. Ted himself spent his entire career in the ceramics industry. Passionate about Staffordshire, its history and its nature, he was very proud that, barring his time serving with the Royal Signals in the Orkney Isles and the King's African Rifles in Burma during the Second World War, he had lived in the north of the county all his life; firstly in Newcastle-under-Lyme, then near Eccleshall and finally in the village of Betley, where he spent his last 40 years.

Ted was an avid collector from childhood. As with many of his generation, he started with stamps, then developed through coins and tokens, fossils, minerals, insects, and sea-shells to postcards. He became an authority on local postcards and was the co-author of several books depicting cards from towns and villages in north Staffordshire. Away from collecting, Ted loved nature and the outdoors and was keen on ornithology and hill-walking; on his 70th birthday he walked up Snowdon.

Ted's collecting of English coins and Staffordshire tokens started in the mid 1930s and he was still acquiring new pieces right up to the time of his death. In 1961 he produced the work "Staffordshire Tokens and their place in the Coinage of England", published as his presidential address in the North Staffordshire Journal of Field Studies, volume 1. A list of additions and corrections to the 17th century portion of Ted's study was published by him in volume 13 of the NSJFS (1973). To this day it is considered to be the definitive work on the subject and incorporated two plates of tokens from Ted's collection. His numismatic passion was his local tokens, although it is a matter of some regret that hardly any of his neat tickets incorporate provenances of any kind. However, his manuscript notes (lot 285 in this catalogue) are more forthcoming on some early provenances, including the William Goostry cabinet, believed dispersed in 1887, and at least one token was originally collected by the Stone antiquarian Stebbing Shaw (†1799). Some unprovenanced 17th century tokens almost certainly derive from the large holding of over 220 pieces put together by William James Faulkner (1862-1939), of Endon, sold in May 1940, or the 60-odd pieces collected by R.J. Carthew (1863-1943) and offered for sale in March 1946, but we cannot now know which. There are some surprising absences, such as the well-known octagonal issue of Gnosall, but these are countered by the inclusion of many rare pieces not originally listed in Williamson's Boyne.

By the late 1960s Ted's collection of English coins was sizeable and his near neighbour, the sculptor Arnold Machin (1911-99), visited him regularly to study his cabinets, spending hours examining how previous mints had coped with numismatic design. It is entirely possible that Ted's coins influenced Machin's work when it came to finalising designs for the decimal coinage, for which Machin had been approached in 1964. Ted joined the Crewe & District Coin & Medal Society in 1976 and was appointed chairman in 1980. In that year he persuaded Machin, then living at Garmelow Manor, Eccleshall, to come out of retirement and address the society, an occasion remembered by founder member Brian Edge as a memorable evening for the 57 people who attended. Subsequently, Ted was a delegate at the very first Token Congress, held in Crewe in 1982.

Ted's death occurred on 23 December 2014, at the venerable age of 93. He leaves his widow, Enid, and two sons, Christopher and James.

Following a spell at the Engineering Academy in Brest in 1896-7, he served on several ships and submarines in Cherbourg, and later Tonkin before becoming the harbourmaster at Saigon in July 1911. £800-1,000

Provenance: H. Montagu Collection, Part III, Sotheby Auction, 13-20 November 1896, lot 591; J.G. Murdoch Collection, Part II, Sotheby Auction, 8-13 June 1903, lot 158; V.J.E. Ryan Collection, Part II, Glendining Auction, 22-4 January 1952, lot 1172; J.G. Brooker Collection [from Spink]; A. Morris Collection [from S. Mitchell February 2000].

According to the sale catalogue, the attribution to Coventry came from Montagu himself although he felt the coin may have been struck sometime after Charles I's reign. The footnote in the Murdoch catalogue suggests the issue is contemporary, pointing out Briot's use of the interlinked C motif on patterns of the late 1630s. Later numismatists, including Boon (SCBI Brooker, p.xlv), seem less sure of an attribution to a provincial mint, suggesting that the issue may be a contemporary forgery. The current vendor feels that style, workmanship, silver quality and the unique interlocking Cs mintmark all point away from a forger's production

Provenance: R. Carlyon-Britton Collection (XIV, 772); bt Seaby 1964.

A disproportionate number of Worcester groats and threepences are found holed. The large size and careful execution of the piercings suggest they were contemporary and that the coins were given as presentation pieces to soldiers, perhaps to be worn in the same way as a Royalist badge – a practice not seen elsewhere

The Kings Norton Metal Company, a private mint in Kings Norton, Birmingham, had, as one of its first important contracts in the coinage business, a contract to supply blanks for British farthings, halfpence and pennies in 1912 and 1913. The existence of this and a few other pieces like it, mostly bearing the head of Edward VII, demonstrates clearly that the company had designs on a British coinage contract early in that reign and Graham Dyer kindly advises that in 1902 the company informed the Royal Mint that they had installed a coining plant and were willing to supply the Mint with coins and blanks

Cincinnati began as a small machine shop in the downtown area of the city of the same name in Ohio, USA, in the mid 1860s. After World War II it took over the Birmingham press manufacturers Horden, Mason & Edwards, who had been approached by the Royal Mint in the early 1960s to prepare a specialist modern coining press suitable for the quantities of UK coins needed when the country changed over to a decimal system; the Mint estimated that 150 additional presses alone would be needed (Cooper, p.231). HME designed the Coinmaster, a forged steel press with a novel rotary feed plate, which was subsequently sold to many mints the world over. In 1969 the parent company name changed to Cincinnati Milacron, reflecting the rapid development of plastics and injection moulding in the company's markets; the name was changed again to Milacron Inc in 1998

- 926 LEEDS, Greenwood & Batley, Proving piece for Martin & Co on behalf of H.H. Abdul Rahman, Amir of Afghanistan, in copper, ornamental G&B cypher, SIR T. Tansley 486). Light scratches on reverse, otherwise good very fine, very rare £80-100

The Leeds firm of Greenwood & Batley, founded in East street, Leeds, in 1856, removed in 1859 to the Albion Works at Armley. They supplied coining presses and associated machinery to a number of foreign mints. Abdur Rahman Khan (c. 1844-1901), grandson of Dost Mahomed, was invited by Lord Lytton, the Governor-General, to become Amir of Afghanistan after the cessation of the Second Afghan War in 1880. Rahman was promised further aid from Britain provided he adopt a pro-British foreign policy. One of the by-products of this was the appointment of Sir Thomas Acquin Martin (1850-1906) as his Agent-General in 1887. Martin, head of Martin & Co, civil engineers, of London and Clive street, Calcutta, in turn sent Sir Thomas Salter Pyne, KB, CSI (1860-1921) to Kabul, where Pyne reorganised the Kabul mint with presses ordered from Greenwood & Batley. The first of these presses, despatched from England on 19 October 1894, was for minting the new 39mm 5 rupee coin; this proving piece was almost certainly made at that time. Further information on Greenwood & Batley is given by Hawkins, pp.552-3

The Royal Mint uses a number of in-house stock dies, among them being the six-sided star of David with a date in the centre. The dates known are 1927, 1936, 1955 and 1957; all but the last are seldom met with. Michael Freeman's 2006 rarity rating of "6-15" specimens known may, with the benefit of hindsight, be regarded as a slight underestimate. At least 9 other examples, mostly in fine condition or less, have been offered at auction since 2006. However, the present piece outgrades by a considerable margin every other 1862 halfpenny with a die letter seen in commerce. The only pieces that in any way approach this one for grade are two with the more frequently met with die letter A ('Cheshire' Collection, Goldberg, 30 May 2005, 3107, $2,700; London Coins, 1 March 2009, 555, £1,700)

Saleroom Notices

Saleroom Notices relevant to this auction are automatically posted on the DNW website. Prospective buyers are strongly advised to consult the site for updates.

Successful Bids

Should you be a successful bidder you will receive an invoice detailing your purchases. All purchases are sent by registered post unless otherwise instructed, for which a minimum charge of £12.00 (plus VAT if resident in the European Union) will be added to your invoice.

All payments for purchases must be made in pounds sterling. Please check your bids carefully and complete the payment instructions overleaf.

Prices Realised

The hammer prices bid at all DNW auctions are posted on the Internet at www.dnw.co.uk in real time. A full list of prices realised appear on the website on auction day and a resumé of each auction is posted on the website the following day. Telephone enquiries are welcome from 09.00 the following morning. Separate printed price lists are no longer issued.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR BUYERS

All lots in DNW auctions are automatically reserved at the bid step which reflects 80% of the lower estimate figure, unless otherwise instructed by the vendor.

All multiple lots (lots containing two or more items) with the exception of designated sets of coins or banknotes, are sold as viewed and not subject to return. Buyers are strongly recommended to view such lots.

Absentee Bids

If instructed we will execute bids and advise intending purchasers. No charge is made for this service. Lots will always be bought as cheaply as is allowed by such other bids and reserves as are on our books. In the event of identical bids, the earliest will take precedence. Always indicate a 'top limit' – the amount to which you would bid if you were attending the auction yourself. 'Buy' or unlimited bids will not be accepted.

All bids must be confirmed in writing, by fax or email and should be received by 18.00 on the day before the auction. Although we will endeavour to execute all late bids, Dix Noonan Webb cannot accept responsibility for any bids received on the day of the auction itself.

Commission Form

Further advice to bidders and purchasers may be found on the commission form included with this catalogue. Please use this form when sending bids to us.

Buyers' Premium

A buyers' premium of 20% on the hammer price (plus VAT if resident in the European Union) is payable by the buyer of all lots.

Pre-sale Estimates

The pre-sale estimates are intended as a guide for prospective purchasers. Any bid between the listed figures would, in our opinion, offer a fair chance of success. However all lots, depending on the degree of competition, can realise prices either above or below the listed estimates.

8 Collection of purchases

The ownership of the lot(s) purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he or she has made payment in full to Dix Noonan Webb of the 'total amount due' in pounds sterling.

9 (a) The buyer shall at his or her own expense take away the lot(s) purchased not later than 5 working days after the day of the auction but (unless credit terms have been agreed in accordance with Condition 7) not before payment to Dix Noonan Webb of the 'total amount due'.

(b) The buyer shall be responsible for any removal, storage and insurance charges on any lot not taken away within 5 working days after the day of the auction.

(c) The packing and handling of purchased lots by Dix Noonan Webb staff is undertaken solely as a courtesy to clients and, in the case of fragile articles, will be undertaken only at Dix Noonan Webb's discretion. In no event will Dix Noonan Webb be liable for damage to glass or frames, regardless of the cause.

10 Buyers' responsibilities for lots purchased

The buyer will be responsible for loss or damage to lots purchased from the time of collection or the expiry of 5 working days after the day of the auction, whichever is the sooner. Neither Dix Noonan Webb nor its servants or agents shall thereafter be responsible for any loss or damage of any kind, whether caused by negligence or otherwise, while any lot is in its custody or under its control.

11 Remedies for non-payment or failure to collect purchase

If any lot is not paid for in full and taken away in accordance with Conditions 6 and 10, or if there is any other breach of either of those Conditions, Dix Noonan Webb as agent of the seller shall, at its absolute discretion and without prejudice to any other rights it may have, be entitled to exercise one or more of the following rights and remedies:

- (a) to proceed against the buyer for damages for breach of contract.
- (b) to rescind the sale of that or any other lots sold to the defaulting buyer at the same or any other auction.
- (c) to re-sell the lot or cause it to be re-sold by public auction or private sale and the defaulting buyer shall pay to Dix Noonan Webb any resulting deficiency in the 'total amount due' (after deduction of any part payment and addition of re-sale costs) and any surplus shall belong to the seller.
- (d) to remove, store and insure the lot at the expense of the defaulting buyer and, in the case of storage, either at Dix Noonan Webb premises or elsewhere.
- (e) to charge interest at a rate not exceeding 2 percent per month on the 'total amount due' to the extent it remains unpaid for more than 5 working days after the day of the auction.
- (f) to retain that or any other lot sold to the same buyer at the sale or any other auction and release it only after payment of the 'total amount due'.
- (g) to reject or ignore any bids made by or on behalf of the defaulting buyer at any future auctions or obtaining a deposit before accepting any bids in future.
- (h) to apply any proceeds of sale then due or at any time thereafter becoming due to the defaulting buyer towards settlement of the 'total amount due' and to exercise a lien on any property of the defaulting buyer which is in Dix Noonan Webb's possession for any purpose.

12 Liability of Dix Noonan Webb and sellers

(a) Goods auctioned are usually of some age. All goods are sold with all faults and imperfections and errors of description. Illustrations in catalogues are for identification only. Buyers should satisfy themselves prior to the sale as to the condition of each lot and should exercise and rely on their own judgement as to whether the lot accords with its description. Subject to the obligations accepted by Dix Noonan Webb under this Condition, none of the seller, Dix Noonan Webb, its servants or agents is responsible for errors of descriptions or for the genuineness or authenticity of any lot. No warranty whatever is given by Dix Noonan Webb, its servants or agents, or any seller to any buyer in respect of any lot and any express or implied conditions or warranties are hereby excluded.

(b) Any lot which proves to be a 'deliberate forgery' may be returned by the buyer to Dix Noonan Webb within 15 days of the date of the auction in the same condition in which it was at the time of the auction, accompanied by a statement of defects, the number of the lot, and the date of the auction at which it was purchased. If Dix Noonan Webb is satisfied that the item is a 'deliberate forgery' and that the buyer has and is able to transfer a good and marketable title to the lot free from any third party claims, the sale will be set aside and any amount paid in respect of the lot will be refunded, provided that the buyer shall have no rights under this Condition if:

(i) the description in the catalogue at the date of the sale was in accordance with the then generally accepted opinion of scholars and experts or fairly indicated that there was a conflict of such opinion; or

(ii) the only method of establishing at the date of publication of the catalogue that the lot was a 'deliberate forgery' was by means of scientific processes not generally accepted for use until after publication of the catalogue or a process which was unreasonably expensive or impractical.

(c) A buyer's claim under this Condition shall be limited to any amount paid in respect of the lot and shall not extend to any loss or damage suffered or expense incurred by him or her.

(d) The benefit of the Condition shall not be assignable and shall rest solely and exclusively in the buyer who, for the purpose of this condition, shall be and only be the person to whom the original invoice is made out by Dix Noonan Webb in respect of the lot sold.

Conditions mainly concerning Sellers and Consignors

13 Warranty of title and availability

The seller warrants to Dix Noonan Webb and to the buyer that he or she is the true owner of the property or is properly authorised to sell the property by the true owner and is able to transfer good and marketable title to the property free from any third party claims. The seller will indemnify Dix Noonan Webb, its servants and agents and the buyer against any loss or damage suffered by either in consequence or any breach on the part of the seller.

14 Reserves

The seller shall be entitled to place prior to the auction a reserve on any single item lot which may not exceed the minimum estimate figure, being the minimum 'hammer price' at which that lot may be treated as sold. A reserve once placed by the seller shall not be changed without the consent of Dix Noonan Webb. Dix Noonan Webb may at their option sell at a 'hammer price' below the reserve but in any such cases the sale proceeds to which the seller is entitled shall be the same as they would have been had the sale been at the reserve. Where a reserve has been placed, only the auctioneer may bid on behalf of the seller.

15 Authority to deduct commission and expenses

The seller authorises Dix Noonan Webb to deduct commission at the 'stated rate' and 'expenses' from the 'hammer price' and acknowledges Dix Noonan Webb's right to retain the premium payable by the buyer.

16 Rescission of sale

If before Dix Noonan Webb remit the 'sale proceeds' to the seller, the buyer makes a claim to rescind the sale that is appropriate and Dix Noonan Webb is of the opinion that the claim is justified, Dix Noonan Webb is authorised to rescind the sale and refund to the buyer any amount paid to Dix Noonan Webb in respect of the lot.

17 Payment of sale proceeds

Dix Noonan Webb shall remit the 'sale proceeds' to the seller not later than 35 days after the auction, but if by that date Dix Noonan Webb has not received the 'total amount due' from the buyer then Dix Noonan Webb will remit the sale proceeds within five working days after the date on which the 'total amount due' is received from the buyer. If credit terms have been agreed between Dix Noonan Webb and the buyer, Dix Noonan Webb shall remit to the seller the sale proceeds not later than 35 days after the auction unless otherwise agreed by the seller.

18 If the buyer fails to pay to Dix Noonan Webb the 'total amount due' within 3 weeks after the auction, Dix Noonan Webb will endeavour to notify the seller and take the seller's instructions as to the appropriate course of action and, so far as in Dix Noonan Webb's opinion is practicable, will assist the seller to recover the 'total amount due' from the buyer. If circumstances do not permit Dix Noonan Webb to take instructions from the seller, the seller authorises Dix Noonan Webb at the seller's expense to agree special terms for payment of the 'total amount due', to remove, store and insure the lot sold, to settle claims made by or against the buyer on such terms as Dix Noonan Webb shall in its absolute discretion think fit, to take such steps as are necessary to collect monies due by the buyer to the seller and if necessary to rescind the sale and refund money to the buyer.

19 If, notwithstanding that the buyer fails to pay to Dix Noonan Webb the 'total amount due' within three weeks after the auction, Dix Noonan Webb remits the 'sale proceeds' to the seller, the ownership of the lot shall pass to Dix Noonan Webb.

20 Charges for withdrawn lots

Where a seller cancels instructions for sale, Dix Noonan Webb reserve the right to charge a fee of 15 per cent of Dix Noonan Webb's then latest estimate or middle estimate of the auction price of the property withdrawn, together with Value Added Tax thereon if the seller is resident in the European Union, and 'expenses' incurred in relation to the property.

21 Rights to photographs and illustrations

The seller gives Dix Noonan Webb full and absolute right to photograph and illustrate any lot placed in its hands for sale and to use such photographs and illustrations and any photographs and illustrations provided by the seller at any time at its absolute discretion (whether or not in connection with the auction).

22 Unsold lots

Where any lot fails to sell, Dix Noonan Webb shall notify the seller accordingly. The seller shall make arrangements either to re-offer the lot for sale or to collect the lot.

23 Dix Noonan Webb reserve the right to charge commission up to one-half of the 'stated rates' calculated on the 'bought-in price' and in addition 'expenses' in respect of any unsold lots.

General conditions and definitions

(b) Dix Noonan Webb declares itself to be a trustee for its relevant servants and agents of the benefit of every indemnity under these Conditions to the extent that such indemnity is expressed to be for the benefit of its servants and agents.

31 These Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. All transactions to which these Conditions apply and all matters connected therewith shall also be governed by English law. Dix Noonan Webb hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts and all other parties concerned hereby submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
